Symposium on spiritual discipline next Sunday

As scheduled earlier, a symposium on "SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINE: INTIMACY WITH GOD" (1 Tim 4:7-9; Phil 4:8-9) will be held at Midtown next Sunday, September 30, 2018. As usual, the Sunday School Classes and Adult Bible Study Hour will be suspended to give way to the symposium as well as to give all teachers and learners to participate in the symposium. Brother Jonathan A. Ramos will serve as the facilitator and is expected to help learners understand, practice, and promote faithfulness to the Lord Almighty through various Biblical spiritual disciplines.

The congregation is encouraged to prepare questions that may be asked and discussed during the open forum. By so doing, the congregation will far better benefit in the said learning activity.

Come now, let us reason together, "says the Lord." Isaiah 1:18. Ω

Ladies get salty in devotional & luncheon fellowship

The THIRD QUARTER STEERING GROUP thanks the ladies for actively participating in last Sunday's LADIES LUNCHEON FELLOWSHIP. Twenty-nine (29) attended and benefitted from the discussions and activities centered on "BEING UPRIGHT." Sister Maureen Soriano facilitated the discussions on "COMBATTING LIES WOMEN BELIEVE ABOUT SIN TO BE UPRIGHT" (Titus 2:11-13). She was assisted by sisters Kana Perdigon who served as song leader and by Sheema Valdez for the energizers.

To reinforce the lessons, the ladies were asked to act or dramatize compromising situations and on the other hand act out how to effectively deal with it to promote being upright. To further remind the participants of the role of disciples in the world—being "SALT OF THE EARTH," sister Lorigrace Bayla-Austria distributed free packs of iodized salt to the delight of the ladies. Ω

Harvey Porter

Martin Luther was charged with heresy and was summoned to appear before the Diet of Worms in April, 1821. As he concluded his defense, he said these words, "If the emperor desires a plain answer, I will give it to him. It is impossible for me to recant unless I am proved to be wrong by the testimony of Scripture. My conscience is bound to the Word of God. It is neither safe nor honest to act against one's conscience. Here I stand. God help me, I cannot do otherwise."

Those words, "Here I stand", sparked the flames of the Protestant Reformation. People had to take a stand either with Scripture or against it.

Paul wrote to the Corinthians, "Now I would remind you, brethren, in what terms I preached to you the gospel, which you received, in which you stand, by which you are saved, if you hold fast unless you have believed in vain" (1 Corinthians 15:1,2).

The Gospel that he preached to them and which they had received required that they "stand" in it. This is simply another way of saying, "This I believe in with all my heart."

We are in an age where most people do not have very many strong convictions about religious teachings. We have abhorred prejudice and bigotry to such an extent that we are afraid to hold strong convictions about anything.

But everyone must realize that there are guidelines in our lives that must be observed for us to have self-respect and a sense of honor. There is a deep-seated satisfaction of knowing that we believe in some things so strongly that we would die for them and by them.

This is the essence of Christianity. Our faith in our Lord Jesus must be so strong, that not only do we know what He stands for and teaches, but we stand for the same. We believe in His principles. We stand for them. These are things that we will not compromise nor negotiate.

It would be well for each of us as followers of the Christ to sit down and simply record the things that we truly "stand for", and fix them clearly in our minds. We will find that life will become easier, not harder. We will live with resolve and conviction, not doubt and hesitation.

"Here I stand!"

Harvey Porter (1929-1998) preached for many years in Albuquerque, New Mexico, USA.
