Brother Julius Udan serves Hydro Nangalisan congregation

Due to the need of the HYDRO CHURCH OF CHRIST meeting at Hydro, Nangalisan, Tuba, Benguet of a preacher to minister to them on Sundays, brother Julius P. Udan, was requested by brother Manny Duguies to conduct SUNDAY WORSHIP ASSEMBLIES at the chapel of the Hydro congregation. Brother Julius Udan, minister of the NANGALISAN CHURCH OF CHRIST, facilitated the Worship Assembly at Hydro last Sunday, June 6, 2021 at 9 o'clock in the morning. There were three families in attendance.

A temporary arrangement, this will continue every Sunday until a full-time preacher will be employed by the Hydro congregation. The congregation is praying that one among the newly graduates of the Baguio-based HERITAGE BIBLE COLLEGE will take interest in serving with them very soon.

With this development, brother Julius Udan now conducts three worship assemblies in Nangalisan every Sunday as follows: 9—10 AM at the HYDRO CONGREGATION, 10—11:30 AM at the congregation meeting at RIVERVIEW, and 3—5 PM at the AMBI RESIDENCE in Lasilas.Ω

Spouses Jojo and Janet Ramos are serving with the brethren in Poblacion, Bokod today, June 13, 2021 @ 9 o'clock in the morning. Brother Jojo Ramos is serving as speaker in the worship assembly being held in one of the members' home.

Last weekend, spouses Jojo and Janet Ramos who were returning home from attending a funeral in Isabela, stopped over in Bokod and met with some brethren to hand over some bottles of Grape Juice for use in their Lord's Supper commemoration. The Ramoses are happy to note that the Bokod brethren are faithfully meeting on Sundays despite the ongoing pandemic. BIBLE CHARACTERS

Gehazi, A Servant

Frances Parr

In the few chapters of 2 Kings which speak of him, Gehazi seems to be a fellow on the run. He was a servant of Elisha, God's prophet. As the prophet remained the country in service to God, Gehazi was his companion and assistant.

A Samaritanite woman befriended Elisha and built a room on her house for him to use when he was passing through. Elisha wanted to repay her for her kindness. Gehazi was sent to find her. The woman's husband was well-to-do and there seemed to be nothing she wanted or needed. Gehazi observed that she had an obituary card that her husband had died. Elisha promised to raise him, and the following year she brought him back.

One day when the wife grew sick, she went with her husband to the prophet. He brought her oil and did the same thing in her further chamber. The prophet said she would walk like the young girl and get up in the morning. Gehazi the hypocrite, went to pray for her, but she died. He went back and told her husband that she was dead. He buried her and Gehazi took the oil and poured it on her. Gehazi was punished for his disobedience and was struck with leprosy. He was a servant of Elisha, but he was not a servant of God.

There is an illustration of how much more that person learn the difference between the two. Gehazi was a servant of Elisha, but in the meantime, the servant had changed. When Elisha healed Naaman, his horse, he was offered silver and clothing, which he refused. After Naaman left to return to his home, Gehazi seized the gold which Elisha threw down shouldn't go to waste. He ran after Naaman, and asked for and got a portion of the goods.

Gehazi returned home, hid his booty in the house, and went about his work. Elisha had missed his servant and asked him where he had been. "I have not been anywhere," Gehazi lied. Elisha's spirit had been with Gehazi and observed everything he did. While Naaman, an enemy soldier, had been cleansed of leprosy, Gehazi, an Israelite, was instantly turned white as snow with the disease. He and his descendants were cursed with leprosy forever.

As with those today who choose to seek worldly gain instead of the way of the Lord, who a huge price to pay for a few bits of perishable rubbish!
