BIBLICAL GUIDELINES FOR CHRISTIANS INVOLVED IN POLITICAL ELECTIONS

1. VOTE ACCORDING TO BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES.

A Christian knows that God's "word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" (Psalm 110:105) and that we are to unfailingly "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight. Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord and shun evil." (Proverbs 3:5-7). In this regard, let us be mindful of the basic precepts commanded in the Scriptures such as the sanctity of human life, marriage and sexuality, religious freedom, justice, mercy, faithfulness, morality, godliness, benevolence, unity, orderliness, and the like. With these in mind, one would be led into finding the rightful candidate deserving one's vote. As Christians, we are not to "give approval to those who practice" what God has explicitly declared to be morally evil (Romans 1:32).

2. VOTE ACCORDING TO GOOD CONSCIENCE.

Yield to one's natural and God-given sense of right and wrong especially so that we are bombarded with so much misinformation. Many times, we find ourselves in a quandary because of the doubtful political atmosphere. We don't even know whom to believe, so to speak. As a matter of fact, it is a challenge to find a candidate who exhibits both the ideal qualities of a leader as well as the character of righteousness. Be as it may, let us remember that the omniscient God will cause us to will and to act according to His good pleasure or purpose (Philippians 2:13). And if one has truly sought the guidance of the Lord, one can peacefully and confidently cast his vote, believing that one's obedience in this matter pleases the Lord. This means that before casting one's vote, one must have prayed intently asking the Lord for guidance and direction. Be mindful of all the candidates – those whom we favor as well as those whom we do not approve. Remember that as Christians, we are commanded to do as follows: "I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way" (1 Tim. 2:1-2).

3. VOTE RECOGNIZING THAT FROM ETERNITY PAST GOD HAS ALREADY ORDAINED OUR NEXT POLITICAL LEADER.

"Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God" (Rom. 13:1). Ultimately, it is God—not the people—who appoints a leader (Gen. 45:8). We are only God's instruments in bringing about his eternal plan. Be willing, therefore, to submit humbly to God's sovereign will, knowing that his will is always for our good and for his glory. In line with this, we are to respect those who oppose our political position. There is no need to be dogmatic about our position knowing that the Almighty Creator is in total control. So, even if our preferred candidate does not win, we are still to honor the candidate who is elected. We must also obey our new leader, unless he/she instructs us to do something that would require us to disobey God. As Christians, our greatest allegiance is to God. As Scripture exhorts us to do, "We must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29).

4. VOTE RECOGNIZING THAT IF THE CANDIDATE WHO WINS IS IMMORAL, REMEMBER THAT GOD IS ABLE TO USE EVEN WICKED LEADERS TO ACCOMPLISH HIS ETERNAL PLAN. (Romans 13:1-7).

Of course, this does not give us permission to vote for obviously and verified bad candidates! However, it should remind us that our greatest hope does not lie with any earthly leader, but with our Heavenly Father who is divinely able to overcome evil for good. Indeed, God in his providence can even use a bad ruler as his "servant for your good" (Rom. 13:4). Let us never forget that God is causing all things—including the upcoming election—to work together for the good of his people, conforming them more fully to the image of his Son, Jesus Christ (Rom. 8:28-29). Whatever the outcome of the election may be, one thing is certain: God will use this election for His purpose. We are concerned about peace and prosperity, but God is concerned about our faithfulness and His eternal glory. Ω
