Mission & Vision

We are committed to give God glory, praise, and honor as we serve in making disciples of Christ. We envision ourselves to be a congregation of worshippers of God in spirit and in truth, and to be a living demonstration of the presence and power of our Lord Jesus Christ in a community of faith, hope, and love.

"God loves us first, not because we are special but because we are broken who need a Savior."

YPeez to study 'True Love Waits' in four Sundays

The YOUNG PEOPLE'S MINISTRY led by brother Ezra Valdez, Midtown's youth minister will conduct a series of lessons on “TRUE LOVE WAITS” to be discussed during their SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY HOUR in all the four Sundays of this month. The study is based on a Christian initiative promoting sexual abstinence up until entering a Biblical marriage relationship. As always, in the midst of contradicting issues in social media, the study is timely which aims at helping young people gain a thorough understanding of Love, Courtship, Marriage, and Sex that is Biblical and time-tested. Meanwhile, the FAMILY LIFE CENTER located at the mezzanine floor of the Infinitea Café, Laperal Building, Session Road, remains open for use by anyone especially by the young people. Brother Jojo Ramos reminds users to fill in their names in the log book provided for every visit. For God's honor!Ω

MAKING AN APPEAL BASED ON LOVE

Philemon 8-11
Arnan A. Bayla | Midtown Church of Christ | February 8, 2026

I. CONSIDERING THE LOVING WAYS OF THE LORD

- RECOGNIZE THAT AUTHORITY IS BEST CARRIED OUT IN LOVE
 - "Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do..."
 - Paul, by not pulling rank, invites Philemon to act freely out of love rather than resenting duty.
- RECOGNIZE THAT LOVE IS THE STANDARD
 - "yet I appeal to you on the basis of love..."
 - Paul moves from "order" (law) to "appeal" (grace).
- RECOGNIZE THAT EVERYONE NEEDS GRACE
 - "I then, as Paul — an old man and now also a prisoner of Christ, Jesus..."
 - Paul emphasizes his vulnerable state as an elderly prisoner in Rome to persuade Philemon to act in grace rather than legal obligation.

Philemon 8-9

II. CONSIDERING THE VALUE OF ETERNAL RELATIONSHIPS

- RECOGNIZE THAT RELATIONSHIPS IN CHRIST ARE PRICELESS
 - "I appeal to you for my son Onesimus..."
 - Paul, the apostle, develops a deep spiritual relationship with the lowest and marginalized in society, treating him as his own child.
- RECOGNIZE THAT RELATIONSHIPS ARE TRANSFORMED IN CHRIST
 - "who became my son..."
 - Paul uses the term affectionately to indicate the valuable relationship developed through the Gospel of Christ.
- RECOGNIZE THAT RELATIONSHIPS IN CHRIST DEFIES STATUS
 - "while I was in chains..."
 - Paul highlights that a new life in Christ is possible regardless of one's circumstances.

Philemon 10

III. CONSIDERING THE WELFARE OF OTHERS

- RECOGNIZE THAT DISCIPLES OF CHRIST MUST CONSIDER THE WELFARE OF OTHERS
 - "Formerly he was useless to you..."
 - Paul states the fact that life without Christ has no eternal worth.
- RECOGNIZE THAT DISCIPLES OF CHRIST ALL BECOME USEFUL
 - "but now he has become useful..."
 - Paul states the fact that one's conversion in Christ brings an all-new purpose of life.
- RECOGNIZE THAT DISCIPLES OF CHRIST ARE RELATED TO EACH OTHER
 - "both to you and to me..."
 - Paul appeals for forgiveness and restoration based on shared identity in Christ and that Onesimus is a "beloved brother" in the Lord.

Philemon 11

SUMMARY CHECK:

If you ask yourself,
"Am I doing this for them and for the Lord,
or for me?"
and if the answer is sincerely
"for them and for the Lord," and you are prepared to accept their decision without being judgmental, it is likely an appeal based on love.

MAKING AN APPEAL BASED ON LOVE

- IS CONSIDERING THE LOVING WAYS OF THE LORD
 - Philemon 8-9
- IS CONSIDERING THE VALUE OF ETERNAL RELATIONSHIPS
 - Philemon 10
- IS CONSIDERING THE WELFARE OF OTHERS
 - Philemon 11

Philemon 8-11

APPLICATION:

1. As disciples of Jesus Christ, in what ways can we choose and love the Lord's ways over ours?
"Let us rest in the knowledge that God is in control of all things, even when the situation is chaotic, fully trusting in God's perfect timing rather than rushing Him or trying to take matters into one's own hands."
"Let us surrender personal desires to God's higher and better purpose instead of demanding that our specific plans be fulfilled which often disregards the long-term consequences or the needs of others."
"Let us do all things with honesty and integrity, rather than deceit or scheming methods to achieve personal, ministry, and church growth goals."
"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the Lord." Isaiah 55:8

APPLICATION:

2. As disciples of Jesus Christ, in what ways can we love and value our relationships with each other?
"Let us encourage forgiving a wrongdoer, even if legal rights exist, putting reconciliation over rights."
"Let us value our brotherhood in Christ over our differences and preferences knowing that the Gospel alters societal status."
"Let us relate to each other with grace such that each one would encourage voluntary, loving actions rather than relying solely on authoritative commands."
"Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. 9 Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. 10 Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms. 1 Peter 4:8-10

APPLICATION:

3. As disciples of Jesus Christ, in what ways can we love and show consideration to each other?
"Let us be patient with one another believing that the gospel transforms worthless lives into useful ones."
"Let us be forgiving believing that forgiveness lead to renewed and transformed relationships."
"Let us promote true Christian fellowship by treating each other as brothers and sisters without regard to past or current circumstances and status."
"Make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4 Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others." Phil 2:2-4

How do we know we are making an appeal based on love?

1. If and when we consider the loving and uncompromising ways of the Lord God Almighty, specifically for us to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength and to love our neighbors as we love ourselves.

2. If and when we consider the value of eternal relationships, i.e., we do the right thing for the sake of our being brothers and sisters in Christ, and above all, when we consider to do things right to honor our eternal relationship with the Lord God Almighty.

3. If and when we consider the welfare of others first or before our own personal interest, and by being patient with one another believing that the gospel transforms useless lives into useful ones.
