Olidans off to HK; to return in 3 months

Spouses Felix Jr. & Luz Olidan left the country Wednesday morning last week for Hong Kong to be with their daughter, Krystelle Flor Olidan—Cadiz, who is expected to deliver her firstborn in a few days. Sister Krystelle and her husband, James Cadiz, both live and work in Hong Kong and are actively involved in the work of the Lord in Wanchai. Brother Felix, serving as one of the deacons at Midtown has endorsed his church-related tasks to some members of the congregation. While he is away, brother Ernie Wagang, sister Ruth Trinidad, spouses Julius & Fely Rojo, and Sol & Lailany Palaypayon will be in charge of the Bible study being conducted at the Cordoviz Dental Clinic. Meanwhile, the congregation's fervent prayers are well solicited for the safe birthing soon. The Olidans intend to stay in Hong Kong for three months to enjoy their grandparenting. For God's praise!Ω

The Virtue of Having Enemies

“Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.” (Luke 6:26)

It is no compliment to say about a Christian that he has no enemies, for that could mean he has accomplished nothing. The apostle Paul had many bitter enemies, and they finally got him executed. In fact, almost all of the great heroes of the faith, through all the centuries since Satan gained his victory over Adam and Eve, have had to overcome bitter opposition from that wicked one.

So, instead of resenting our enemies, we should thank God for them, for they enable us to become more like our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! Only through such experiences can we learn what it means to say with Paul, “I am crucified with Christ” (Galatians 2:20). Only if we have enemies can we learn to obey Christ’s difficult command to “love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you” (Matthew 5:44).

The Lord Jesus easily could have called on 12 legions of angels to rout His enemies (Matthew 26:53). Instead, He submitted to their vicious insults and cruel tortures, even praying in His agony on the cross, “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do” (Luke 23:34). The enemies of Christ killed Him, but had they not done so He would not have died for our sins, and we would be lost eternally. This is a mystery to ponder and difficult to comprehend, yet, as the Bible promises, “surely the wrath of man shall praise thee” (Psalm 76:10)

The enmity of men can thus be a channel of divine grace to the believer, for “tribulation worketh patience” (Romans 5:3), and “our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory” (2 Corinthians 4:17). HMM

Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say, “I find no pleasure in them...” Ecclesiastes 12:1
