Couples care group learn from diamond jubilarians

Spouses Gil & Diana Geron, Dan-gil & Lala Geron, Noel & Cot Espinosa, Dex & Den Wagang, Eric & Jing Sacayanan, and Anthony & Laarni Salud, together with Sister Lulu Bondoc, were blessed by the timeless and Biblical teachings on marriage shared by spouses Dodooy & Sarah Sameon, who served as RESOURCE SPEAKERS during the COUPLES CARE GROUP held evening of June 13. Now on their 60th year of marriage, the Sameons emphasized that a lasting God-centered marriage is built on commitment, love, and mutual respect, all firmly grounded in Scripture. They encouraged couples to continually apply Biblical principles that nurture patience, forgiveness, understanding, and enduring unity through every season of life. Amen!Ω

Instruction Contrary to Knowledge

“Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.” (Proverbs 19:27)

One of the saddest realities in the modern world is that many of the leaders of evolutionary and humanistic thought were raised in Christian homes, where from an early age they were exposed to the truths of Scripture. Testimonies without number have been chronicled of Christian students going to universities where they were taught to doubt and then to disbelieve the faith of their parents. Perhaps all these students ever knew of Christianity was a set of rules; maybe they never understood the reasons their parents held certain views or the basis for these beliefs. Certainly the foundational teaching of creation has been missing in many Christian homes and the church.

Our primary goal as parents should be to establish a godly heritage—to teach the truths of God in such a way as will be believed and cherished by our children so that they will “keep that which is committed to [their] trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called” (1 Timothy 6:20).

Certainly a more effective way of teaching is to continually point the child or student back to foundational principles rather than to list a set of dos and don'ts. We must teach those under our influence to be grounded in the Word so that they can make sound judgments when away from our watchful eyes. No greater aid to serious study, no better primer in careful reasoning exists than in Scripture. Using it and other supportive materials, a child can learn to think carefully and critically. Not only will they learn information, but here they can learn wisdom and knowledge and understanding. “For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding” (Proverbs 2:6).
